

I strongly support the Indiana Attorney General's Office in their efforts to retain the telephone privacy act that has been in place. Furthermore, I strongly urge member banks of the CBA to re-think their actions in challenging the matter.